

Confidentiality & Data Protection Statement FOR UK APPLICANTS

This box is to be used for privacy of information and/or other legal statements that may be required in some INAS-FID member nations. This is a requirement in the UK.

Confidentiality of Information and Data Protection Statement

I understand that the information contained in this form and attachments will be circulated, shared, processed and stored by the UK Sports Association for People with Learning Disability, its Eligibility panel, INAS-FID and associated organisations to confirm my eligibility to compete as an athlete with learning disability throughout the world.

This will mean that my information will be stored both on a computer and on paper.

This information may be copied and circulated by INAS-FID to individuals and organisations outside of the UK and Europe, but will be used in accordance with INAS-FID Data Protection and Information Handling Policies. See www.inas-fid.org

I understand that I can at any time withdraw my consent for this information about me to be stored, circulated or managed in this way, but that this may affect my ability to be classified or retain a classification already granted.
