A letter from this athletes coach would be useful. The letter from the Home Coach is a letter of support for them to be considered for selection to this competition and series of events. Any concerns or questions about this athletes' fitness, injuries, future training or ability to fit GB Team profile must be raised at this stage. Any additional background information about the athlete, including specific support needs etc should be provided to SSC at the point of nomination.

Home Country Declaration

I/We fully support this athlete's application to be considered for selection to Team GB. We confirm that the athlete has been consulted and understands the implications, both financial and otherwise of being part of Team GB.

To the best of our knowledge this is an accurate account of the athlete's circumstances and performances and will provide the UKSA SSC with regular updates if and when they arise.
